

Why ACG?

- New Zealand's largest quality private education provider
- Reputation for excellence and academic success
- Association with a number of educational organisations (Education New Zealand, English New Zealand, Independent Schools New Zealand, Cambridge International and the IB World Schools)
- Offers a one-stop-shop, education pathways from kindergarten to tertiary level - vocational training and university pathways
- Category 1 provider
- 28 campuses across 8 cities in New Zealand
- Two international schools in Ho Chi Minh City and Jakarta
- Excellent quality and great outcomes for students
- Strong industry links and employment outcomes
- Paid/unpaid internships (merit based)
- Detailed monitoring services for parents
- Excellent support for students

Why study English at ACG English School?

- Established in 1999
- English programmes from Elementary to Advanced Level & IELTS preparation
- Minimum age 12 – minimum length 1 week
- Choice between 24 or 30 hours of English per week
- School runs year-round with intakes every week
- Fully qualified and registered teachers
- Guaranteed pathways to all ACG schools and programmes
- A member of English New Zealand

Why choose a school education at ACG?

- Delivering top results and academic achievement since 1995
- Some of the best high schools in NZ – outstanding academic results
- A choice of two international curricula (Cambridge International Examinations and IB Diploma) – accepted by universities around the world
- Longer days and longer lessons – more focused learning
- Highly qualified, caring and committed teachers – some represent the best in their subject field
- A choice of locations - four schools in Auckland and one school in Tauranga

Why study university foundation at ACG?

- Established in 1999
- Guaranteed pathway to the University of Auckland, AUT University and Victoria University of Wellington respectively
- Programmes from 6 months up to 18 months
- Accepted by all New Zealand universities and many others worldwide
- Free extra tuition available to our students
- Free iPad for students for the length of their foundation studies

Why study hospitality at NZMA?

- Established in 1985 – part of ACG
- A spacious and modern purpose-built campus – restaurant environment, bar, barista area and student run café
- Decades of experience and industry links – the preferred training provider for many of NZ's leading employers
- Great career/pathway options for students after completing the two-year diploma:
 - Students may be entitled to post study work visa
 - Students can continue with Level 7 Diploma in Tourism and Hotel Management and also be awarded a Bachelor of Arts in Events and Hotel Management from the Hotel and Tourism Management Institute in Switzerland
 - Students can continue with a Bachelor of International Hospitality Management at AUT University (2 years at ACG, 18 months at AUT)
- Paid/unpaid internships (merit based)
- Free employment support up to one year after graduation
- A choice of locations – Campuses in Auckland and Hamilton

Why study cookery at NZMA?

- Established in 1985 – part of ACG
- A spacious and modern purpose-built campus – 4 commercial kitchens, barista area, bar and student run café
- Decades of experience and industry links – the preferred training provider for many of the NZ's leading employers
- Paid/unpaid internships (merit based)
- One of the highest practical training ratios in the market (80% of your time is spent in the kitchen)
- Free employment support up to one year after graduation

Why study digital design and multimedia at ACG Yoobee School of Design?

- Established in 1997
- The largest specialist digital design and multimedia school in NZ
- Small classes with industry experienced tutors
- Short and vocationally focused programmes
- Pathways from Level 3 certificates to Level 7 advanced diplomas
- Practical education with project-based assessments
- Free short courses for Level 7 diploma students
- Full-time student employment coordinators on campus
- A choice of locations with campuses in Auckland, Wellington and Christchurch

Why study tourism at NZ School of Tourism?

- Established in 1985 – part of ACG
- 95% New Zealand students
- Paid/unpaid internships (merit based)
- Short study tours possible
- Exclusive job fairs
- Full sized 737 Boeing aircraft at Auckland Airport Campus
- A choice of locations with campuses in Auckland, Hamilton, Rotorua, Wellington, Christchurch, Dunedin

Why study business at NZ Career College?

- Established in 2004 – part of ACG
- Level 7 Diploma in Applied Business Management
- All bachelor degrees accepted for entry
- Specialisations in the following areas:
 - Professional Retailing
 - Project Management
 - Procurement & Supply Chain Management
 - Health Management
- Paid/unpaid internships (merit based)
- Well qualified, industry-experienced and highly committed staff
- Careers team on campus