What makes BMIHMS outstanding?

Our unique, immersive approach to learning.

- Undergraduate students live and study in a simulated hotel on the Leura campus. There they carry out all the daily operations of a hotel, including catering management, restaurant service and front-office duties.
- Students in Leura can also interact with paying guests and gain real-world experience in our student-run Nesuto Leura Gardens Hotel.
- All our on-campus postgraduate students have applied learning hospitality subjects taught in real life environments.

Industry Placements

- Our industry placements provide hands-on experience in leading hotels and insights into future career paths.
- Undergraduate (Bachelor of Business in Hotel & Resort Management) students complete two six-month placements in Australia or overseas.
- Postgraduate (Master of International Hotel Management) students complete one six-month placement in Australia or overseas.
- For graduates, the placements give potential employers proof of work experience and enhance professional prospects.

Our courses

Designed by the Hospitality industry for the Hospitality industry.

Our locations

- Leura campus (located in the Blue Mountains) is for the 1st and 2nd-year students in the undergraduate program, a 90-minute drive or train trip from Sydney, and one of Australia's top tourist destinations.
- Sydney campus, for 3rd year students in the undergraduate program and students in the postgraduate program, is in the heart of Australia's largest city. Close to stunning beaches and well serviced by public transport, Sydney's a safe, friendly place to live and study.
- Melbourne campus, for students studying a Master of International Hotel Management, is in Flinders Street, the creative and business hub of one of the most liveable cities in the world.
- Adelaide campus, for students studying Master of International Hotel Management is in the capital city of South Australia. It is accessible, affordable, student-centric and is walking distance from everything you need.
