Post-study work visas

On successful completion of study students may apply for a post-study work visa, which allows them to remain in New Zealand to work for one to three years.

If the student's first student visa application was made on or after 8 August 2018:

- Employer assistance to obtain a post-study work visa is no longer required
- A one-year post-study open work visa is available for students studying Levels 4–6 and non-degree Level
 7 qualifications, with an additional year for Graduate
 Diploma graduates who are working towards registration with a professional or trade body
- A two-year post-study open work visa is available for students studying Levels 4–6 and non-degree Level 7 qualifications outside Auckland, provided study is completed by December 2021, at which point the entitlement for post-study work rights reverts to a one-year post-study open work visa for students studying Level 4–6 and non-degree Level 7 qualifications, with an additional year for Graduate Diploma graduates who are working towards registration with a professional or trade body
- A three-year post-study open work visa is available for degree Level 7 or above qualifications
- International students studying Level 8 qualifications are required to work in an area specified on New Zealand Immigration's Long Term Skills Shortage List in order for their partner to be eligible for an open work visa and for the partner's dependent children to be eligible for fees-free domestic schooling

For students already in New Zealand who applied for a student visa before 8 August 2018, previous post-study work visa requirements apply.

UP Education has two IAA-registered staff members available to assist students once they have commenced study and wish to apply for a post-study work visa.

Summary of terms implied by statute

This summary records the minimum requirements imposed on the College by statute as at the date of publication of this application form. The summary will be deemed to be incorporated into each Contract of Enrolment.

The summary is not intended as a substitute for the statutory requirements and in the event of any conflict between the summary and a statute, the terms of the relevant statute will prevail. If any relevant statute is amended following the date of publication of this summary, and such an amendment imposes obligations on the College, then this summary and the relevant Contract of Enrolment will be deemed to be amended accordingly.

Student fee protection

The Student Fee Protection Rules 2013 (v5) made under section 253 of the Education Act 1989 and the Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016 (and associated guidelines) contain provisions relating to the protection of student fees.

In order to comply with the various obligations under these provisions, student fees paid in advance are held in trust by the UP Education Student Fees Trust or another independent trustee. Fees are transferred from the relevant trust to the college operating account after commencement, in stages as the course is completed.

In the event where a programme is terminated and alternative tuition services are not provided, the student may be entitled to a refund of prepaid student fees pro rata for the balance of the course based on the number of full weeks required to complete the programme subject to and in accordance with the refund policies set out in the Contract of Enrolment.

Privacy Act

The Privacy Act 1993 came into force on 1 July 1993 with the stated aim of protecting the privacy of natural persons. It requires the School/College to collect, use, store and disclose personal information in accordance with the 12 information privacy principles in the Act available on the Privacy Commissioner's website at: privacy.org.nz/the-privacy-act-and-codes/privacy-principles/)

The College complies with the principles of the Privacy Act 1993 (and the information privacy principles in that Act) in respect of personal information. Personal information is collected by the College during the enrolment process and during the period in which the student is enrolled at the College and is intended for use in connection with the education and wellbeing of the student. Information will be stored on College files and databases and all practicable security measures will be maintained. A unique identifier will be assigned to each student, which will be used in conjunction with a secondary means of identification or password/PIN. Staff members and other personnel within the College or within agencies under contract to the College will have access to student personal information for purposes relevant to normal College operations including but not limited to: student recruitment, marketing, admission, enrolment, study, academic progress, tuition fees and charges, establishing and maintaining academic records, assessment, academic agreements (scholarship providers or sponsors, programme delivery partners), academic advice and support, student services, discipline, security and safety, library and IT services, managing records of graduates, and other alumni, and managing and improving the quality of services provided by the College.

In order to conduct its proper business and as required under the Education Act 1989 and other laws, regulations and contractual agreements by which it is bound, the College may use the student information it holds and may disclose information to external agencies such as government departments, bodies responsible for course moderation and professional accreditation or membership, agencies for financial support and pastoral care. This includes use and disclosure as required for the College to comply with the requirements of the Ministry of Education (student statistical returns), New Zealand Qualifications Authority (Record of Learning registration and unit standard outcomes), Tertiary Education Commission

(funding returns), industry training organisations (funding and academic outcomes), Ministry of Social Development (confirmation of enrolment and academic outcomes), Inland Revenue Department (student loan interest rebate) and Immigration New Zealand (if the student is not a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident).

In addition, the College may disclose personal information to Government agencies such as the New Zealand Police, Department of Justice, Ministry of Social Development and the Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC). In signing the Acknowledgment section of this Information and Application Form and the Enrolment Acceptance Form when the student accepts an offer to study, the student authorises such disclosure on the understanding that the College will observe the general conditions governing the release of information, as set out in the Privacy Act 1993 and the Education Act 1989.

The College will make information held about a student available to the student upon request and in accordance with the Privacy Act 1993, which also describes the conditions under which information may be withheld. Students have the right to request correction of personal information held in accordance with the provisions of the Privacy Act 1993. If a student withholds information or provides incomplete, false or misleading information, the College may decline or cancel the admission or enrolment and may withhold the academic record if its veracity cannot be confirmed.

Code of Practice requirements

The College has agreed to observe and be bound by the Education (Pastoral Care of International Students) Code of Practice 2016 administered by the Ministry of Education. A copy of the Code and the associated guidelines are available on the NZQA website at: nzqa. govt.nz/providers-partners/education-code-of-practice/Immigration

Full details of visa and permit requirements, advice on rights of employment in New Zealand while studying and reporting requirements are available through the New Zealand Immigration Service, and can be viewed on their website at: immigration.govt.nz

Eligibility for health services

Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health, and can be viewed on their website at: moh.govt.nz

Accident insurance

The Accident Compensation Corporation (ACC) provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors to New Zealand, but students may be liable for all other medical and related costs. Further information can be viewed at: acc.

New Zealand Government Export Education Levy

The New Zealand Government has imposed an international student levy on tuition and course-related fees. The levy is currently set at 0.50% of the compulsory tuition fees. Further information can be found at: education.govt.nz/our-work/consultations/recent-consultations/export-education-levy-consultation/

Goods and Services Tax (GST)

All fees are quoted in New Zealand dollars and include Goods and Services Tax (GST) where applicable. This is a New Zealand Government tax payable on the supply of goods and services. GST is currently set at 15% and applies to all services we deliver. Further information can be found at: classic.ird.govt.nz/gst/gst-registering/gst-about/
