Les Roches Jin Jiang welcomes the fearless

Hospitality is the happiness industry. It is the art of marking memories, perfectly in tune with a new generation that knows a life well-lived is one full of stories, not possessions.

If this is what inspires you, you belong at Les Roches. Come to us if you want to challenge – and be challenged – to disrupt, innovate, to lead, and to inspire. If you want to be fearless, then step this way.

In China, we've been training the fearless in hospitality since 2004.

Our campus in the quiet suburb of Fengxian, 45 minutes away from the center of Shanghai, offers undergraduate and postgraduate diploma programs in International Hotel Management to a diverse and multicultural community of students.

As a joint venture between Les Roches Switzerland and Jin Jiang International Hotels, we combine top ranked Swiss hospitality standards with the expertise, network, and drive of the world's third largest and fastest growing hotel groups.

Our curriculum, taught in English, provides students with a strong academic and theoretical foundation in hospitality business management as well as hands-on learning, both on campus and through internship opportunities in China and abroad.

Internship Opportunities

Internships are an integral part of our curriculum and play an important role in the holistic education of our students.

Each year, more than 70 of the industry's top employers visit our campus to interview and recruit students for internship and employment opportunities. Our on-campus Career Service team actively organizes recruitment events and provides knowledge, support, and guidance to students in every step of their internship journey.
