Certificate in Foundation Studies

2018

You have made a wise choice in selecting the University of Auckland as your destination for university studies in New Zealand, and qualifying for admission to the University through our Certificate in Foundation Studies.

This programme has been taught exclusively through ACG Education since February 1999. We have observed that students who come to us through this programme have performed well academically at university level.

The collaboration between the University of Auckland and ACG offers you access to a comprehensive range of world-class qualifications in an excellent learning environment. The University of Auckland Certificate in Foundation Studies is accredited by the New Zealand Vice Chancellors' Committee and is recognised for entry to all New Zealand universities.

The University of Auckland was established in 1883 and is New Zealand's leading university. It is an international centre of learning and academic excellence. Around 42,000 students choose to study at the University each year, of whom over 7,000 are international, from 125 countries.

Graduates from the University of Auckland occupy leading positions in such diverse areas as business, law, medicine, politics and the professions, within New Zealand and overseas.

The University of Auckland guarantees entry to students whose results in the Certificate in Foundation Studies meet the published standards required for each of the University's degree programmes, and who meet other entry requirements for admission to the University.

On behalf of the University of Auckland, I welcome you to our Certificate in Foundation Studies programme and look forward to welcoming you to the University on successful completion of your foundation studies at ACG.

Distinguished School

Recognized by Apple as a distinguished school for innovation, leadership, and educational excellence.

ACG Pathways – an Apple Distinguished School

ACG Pathways is one of just 400 institutions from 29 countries to be appointed as an Apple Distinguished School. This invitation-only programme shows that we are innovative, we use technology effectively to support our students' goals, and we share Apple's vision for learning with technology. Our school leaders use iPad and Mac products to inspire creativity, collaboration and critical thinking in our students.

Free iPads

When you enrol in a university foundation studies programme at ACG, you will receive an iPad free of charge for the duration of your course. You will have full access to a complete set of course materials via the iPad.

Mobile technology

Mobile technology expands the classroom, making learning possible anywhere, anytime. By using myACG (Blackboard), students have access to all of their resources and can be learning at any time of the day or night. A teacher's role is critical in helping students find the best sources of knowledge, and teaching them how to use that knowledge in the best way. That's why ACG Pathways appoints highly experienced, registered teachers who give effective guidance to students to help them achieve their goals.

Welcome to Auckland, New Zealand

Welcome to Auckland, New Zealand, where an exciting new study life awaits.

Why New Zealand?

New Zealand consists of two main islands in the South Pacific, three hours to the east of Australia by plane, an overnight flight west of the USA, or ten to twelve hours direct flight from most Pacific Rim countries. It is beautiful in its geographical diversity.

Comparable in size and shape to Great Britain or Japan, it is a stable English-speaking democracy with a population of approximately 4.7 million people, making it one of the world's least crowded countries. Internationally it is known for the beauty of the landscape and the culture of the Māori – New Zealand's first nation people. The cities are clean, open and lively, with Auckland in particular showing many Pacific influences. New Zealand's oceans, mountains, and open spaces provide many opportunities for adventure tourism.

universitypathways.acgedu.com

New Zealand has earned an international reputation for its politically independent stance, support for environmental causes and radical economic reforms. Its people have made significant contributions to the worlds of science and technology, the arts, medicine, conservation, food, wine, sports and fashion.

New Zealand is ranked 2nd on the Global Peace Index 2017 for the most peaceful nation on Earth.*

The quality of education in New Zealand ranks highly by world standards.

Why Auckland?

With a population of approximately 1.5 million, Auckland is New Zealand's largest city and the country's economic hub. It consistently rates as one of the world's most desirable cities in which to live and currently ranks third out of 230 world cities for quality of life.**

The city is surrounded by two harbours – the Waitemata and the Manukau – and is often referred to as the "City of Sails" due to Aucklanders' love for water sports and the sea. The cultural facilities and educational institutions are major attractions for people from other countries.

Auckland's climate is temperate and perfect for enjoying the many beautiful and clean beaches within easy reach of the city. Temperatures range from an average maximum of 24 degrees in summer (December to March) to 16 degrees in winter (June to August).

Auckland is a city of cultural diversity with a large Polynesian, Māori and Asian, as well as European, population. This diversity brings with it an abundance of unique cultural experiences and entertainment, a passion for the arts, food and fashion, and a bustling inner city.

Auckland is a vibrant and forward-thinking city which embraces the contributions of its many young people.

Student stories

My name is Daria and I'm from Krasnodar, Russia.

When I finished school in my country I wanted to go to university overseas and study in English. My parents travelled to New Zealand and liked it so much they suggested I come here to study. Also, in comparison with other English-speaking countries, New Zealand is more affordable.

I chose New Zealand because it is safe and has a high quality of life. To live here is a good chance to learn about another culture and get a different perspective of my own life. When you are so far from your country, family and friends you begin to understand what you really want from life, what your dreams are and who you really are. Also, your thoughts, beliefs and attitudes change and your vision of the world expands.

Since I started studying at ACG, every day has been very interesting and I have learnt a lot about other countries and cultures. Sometimes it can be quite difficult to study and express yourself clearly in another language. Also, the study methods here are pretty different from the ones in my country so you have to learn to study in a new way, but the teachers are always there to help you. I also like the people with whom I'm studying. I've made some good friends here.

After I complete my foundation studies at ACG, I'm going to enter the University of Auckland to study medicinal chemistry or pharmacology.

My name is Mohamed Alansari and I'm from Bahrain.

Because of the differences in the schooling systems of New Zealand and Bahrain, I needed to do a foundation course to ensure I was prepared to pursue my tertiary education in this country.

I completed a Bachelor of Arts in mathematics and education, followed by a Bachelor of Arts (1st Class Honours) in education, a Masters of Arts (1st Class Honours) in education, and now a PhD specialisation in social psychology of education.

I am now a research fellow at the Faculty of Education and Social Work within the University of Auckland. As part of my role, I give lectures on educational and social psychology, research methods, and improving outcomes for university students.

I'm a big dreamer. So I see myself in ten years' time taking on a challenging leadership role that allows me to have a greater impact on how we teach students and cater to their needs at all education levels.

Our names are Tam and Krystal and we are from Vietnam. We are twin sisters.

Tam

I really enjoy living and studying here. ACG Pathways Campus has such a good study environment. This is a place where you can develop speaking, listening and writing, and improve your social skills. The teaching methods are varied and flexible. Next year I'm going to do a Bachelor of Arts in TESOL* at the University of Auckland and after that I'm going to keep studying to get a masters degree in TESOL. After that I will go home and become a university English lecturer.

Krystal

ACG is where my future began. I love it here. I feel warmly welcomed, I am encouraged to keep moving forward and I feel safe and accepted here. Everyone is very helpful and I feel at home. Next year I will study a Bachelor of Arts in TESOL at the University of Auckland, just like Tam, to become an English lecturer, but I have other options too. Presently, I find economics quite interesting.

New Zealand is such a great choice. It's a safe place with many job opportunities and it's not far from my country. The people here are just so friendly. I loved New Zealanders the moment I came here.

CODE OF PRACTICE FOR THE PASTORAL CARE OF INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

ACG and its colleges have agreed to observe and be bound by the New Zealand Government's Education (Pastoral Care for International Students) Code of Practice 2016. Copies of the Code are available on request from this institution or from the New Zealand Qualifications Authority website at nzqa/the-code.

IMMIGRATION: Full details of visa and permit requirements, advice on rights to employment in New Zealand while studying, and reporting requirements are available through Immigration New Zealand, and can be viewed on their website at immigration.govt.nz

ELIGIBILITY FOR HEALTH SERVICES: Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand.

If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly-funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health, and can be viewed on their website at moh.govt.nz

ACCIDENT INSURANCE: The Accident Compensation Corporation provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors to New Zealand, but you may still be liable for all other medical and related costs. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website at acc.co.nz

MEDICAL AND TRAVEL INSURANCE: International students must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while studying in New Zealand.

It is a requirement for all international students studying with ACG to have comprehensive medical and travel insurance cover. Students can either have the cover arranged by ACG or produce evidence at the time of application that they have insurance cover from another company that meets the approval of ACG.

As at November 2017, every attempt was made to present accurate information in this prospectus. ACG reserves the right to change without notice programmes, terms and conditions both before and after students' admission.
