

Ntec English Language Programmes

Promotion for Indonesian students: June – October 2016

Studying English in New Zealand

Studying in another country is an experience that will stay with you for life. At Concordia we understand this and we are dedicated to providing our students with an adventure that combines their language growth with opportunities to socialise and get to know the city they are living in. Your language development will be guided by a group of passionate and well qualified professionals who deliver classes which are engaging, interactive and effectively build your learning. You will be exposed to the latest learning resources and you will have access to technology and self-study opportunities that maximise your language acquisition.
